

JUDGE CRAIG TREADWAY has been married to Rebecca Treadway for twenty-four years. They have two sons, Jake, a sophomore at Ole Miss and Ethan, a sophomore at Lewisburg High. He has practiced law since 1995. He is a graduate of Ole Miss Law School. He has served as a Circuit Court Public Defender and served five terms as DeSoto County Prosecuting Attorney. He has served as County Court Judge in DeSoto County since February of 2017 with primary responsibility over Youth Court. He also serves as a member of the Mississippi Bar Compliant Tribunal. He is on the Board of Directors of the ARC of Mississippi and is active in the ARC of Northwest Mississippi's Autism Law Enforcement Coalition (ALEC) which trains First Responders in proper techniques for encountering individuals on the Autism spectrum.